

Aquila Capital develops alternative investment solutions for institutional investors worldwide. Founded in 2001 and owner-managed, the investment company considers itself a fiduciary for its clients and applies a holistic approach to managing customised real assets and financial assets.

Aquila Group's client base consists predominantly of institutional investors in Europe and Asia. Over 200 professionals located in ten offices globally implement efficient investment strategies via fund structures and individual mandates. The Aquila Group comprises Aquila Capital Investmentgesellschaft mbH, which is licensed by the Federal Financial Supervisory Authority (BaFin) to act as an alternative investment fund manager in Germany, and Alceda Fund Management S.A., which is licensed as an alternative investment fund manager and UCITS management company in Luxembourg by the Commission de Surveillance du Secteur Financier (CSSF).

Alceda is seeking a

Compliance Officer (m/f) to join our team in Luxembourg

Key Responsibilities

- identifying the existing rules and the upcoming regulations in Luxembourg which may impact business
- keep updated on directives, laws, regulations and circulars governing the conduct of business activities of the management company and funds
- fight against anti-money-laundering and the financing of terrorism, as well as the rules of conduct of the financial sector and investor protection rules
- develop and reinforce existing controls in order to mitigate such risks in coordination with Group Compliance
- provide advice on regulatory and legal matters on any compliance issues that may arise, conduct compliance monitoring and reporting in line with Group Compliance standards
- provide advice with regard to client onboarding and transactions that may be considered as unusual, monitor the operation and effectiveness AML / CTF systems and controls
- preparing and providing regular compliance reports, as appropriate, to senior management
- act as the contact person for the local regulator and authorities as regards to anti-money laundering / counter-terrorist financing (AML / CTF) and Compliance
- verify that the organizational duties relating to Compliance are complied with (cross boarding rules, treat customers fairly, conflict of interest management), including outsourced and / or delegated regulated activities
- monitoring of personal employee transactions, prevention of market abuse and insider trading, marketing compliance

Key Requirements

- university degree in Finance, Law or Business Administration
- 5 years of work experience in the Luxembourg financial sector, especially in compliance, audit or legal department
- good understanding of rules applicable to the Luxembourg investment fund industry
- ability to succeed, grow and be challenged in a dynamic environment
- strong communication skills
- ability to prioritize risks and tasks effectively
- fluent in English and German written and spoken. French is considered as an advantage
- ability to work independently closely aligned with the Group Compliance function

What we offer

- Alceda is an emerging leader in the financial center Luxembourg
- Excellent development opportunities for individual personal development
- A challenging task in a highly skilled, dynamic team

Are you interested in our job description and do you have the qualifications being sought? Then we look forward to receive your application. Please upload your documents and indicate your salary requirements and availability here.

Human Resources
5, Heienhaff
1736 Senningerberg
www.alceda.lu